

DOCKING STATION

Connectivity without limits – ready for use anywhere, anytime

Modern notebooks are becoming ever slimmer, while everyday working life is increasingly flexible. Mobility, changing work locations and hybrid meetings characterise today's working world. DICOTA docking stations and hubs are designed precisely for this: they expand and enhance the functionality of notebooks and tablets and enable convenient and efficient setup. External monitors, keyboards and other accessories can be integrated quickly and reliably. Wherever and however you work.
